FACILITATOR

NG SOON KIANG is a Bachelor Degree holder of Chemistry with Minor in Management. He started his career as Production Shift Supervisor in a US-based medical glove manufacturer before moving to R&D line in an Australian glove manufacturer as an R&D Chemist over a total of 8 years. He then served as Senior Chemist in Quality Control Laboratory in Metal Smelting for 8 years and later moved to Wood-based Manufacturing Sdn. Bhd. as an R&D Manager.

The 16 years experience in science and technology has strengthened his grasp in both analytical thinking and quality practices. His conscience for quality products was nurtured through US FDA audits on medical products. He has co-developed a patented (patented in USA) hydrogel coating for surgical gloves. He has also developed pre-curing formulations for latex which was later used in the production of examination gloves with a capacity of 500,000 pieces per day. The time in MIECO was spent developing formulations for particleboard and paper laminates.

He held the position of head of department of R&D, EHS and Regulatory Affairs in Wood-based Manufacturing Sdn Bhd. During 2007 and 2008, he was the head of QA/QC department responsible for incoming, in-process and outgoing quality while attending to quality complaints. Since 2007 he has become the Management Representative for QMS, EMS, OHSAS, JIS and PEFC-CoC.

He clocked over 450 hours of external training mostly under CIDB. He has just been certified by HRDF as a certified trainer. The list of subjects specialized include:

- ISO 9001:2015 Awareness
- ISO 9001:2015 Internal Auditor Risk Management
- Time Management & 7 QC Tools
